

SPIRIT ROOM

GALLERIES

The Light We Go After

Poems by Madelyn Camrud

Thursday, June 7, 7:00 pm

Madelyn Camrud, born in Grand Forks, and raised in rural Thompson, has lived all but nine months of her life in North Dakota. She received degrees in visual arts and creative writing at the University of North Dakota, and taught in the English Department before taking a position at the North Dakota Museum of Art where she served as Director of Audience Development.

Camrud's poems have appeared in numerous journals and anthologies. She is the author of This Horse Is Filled with Cracks (1994). Two poems from this collection were chosen to air on Garrison Keillor's Writer's Almanac. She received the Thomas McGrath Award in Poetry from the University of North Dakota's English Department in 1990 and won the New Rivers Press Minnesota Voices Competition in 1995.